

A low-angle photograph showing the lower legs and feet of several people standing on a light-colored concrete floor. Sunlight streams in from the left, creating strong, diagonal shadows across the floor. The people are wearing various styles of pants and shoes, including dark trousers, light-colored trousers, sneakers, loafers, and dress shoes. The overall atmosphere is bright and modern.

City of Vancouver Solutions Lab

Lindsay Cole, PhD (cand.) + Lab Manager
@lindsaycole
lindsay.cole@vancouver.ca

Canadian Labs Landscape

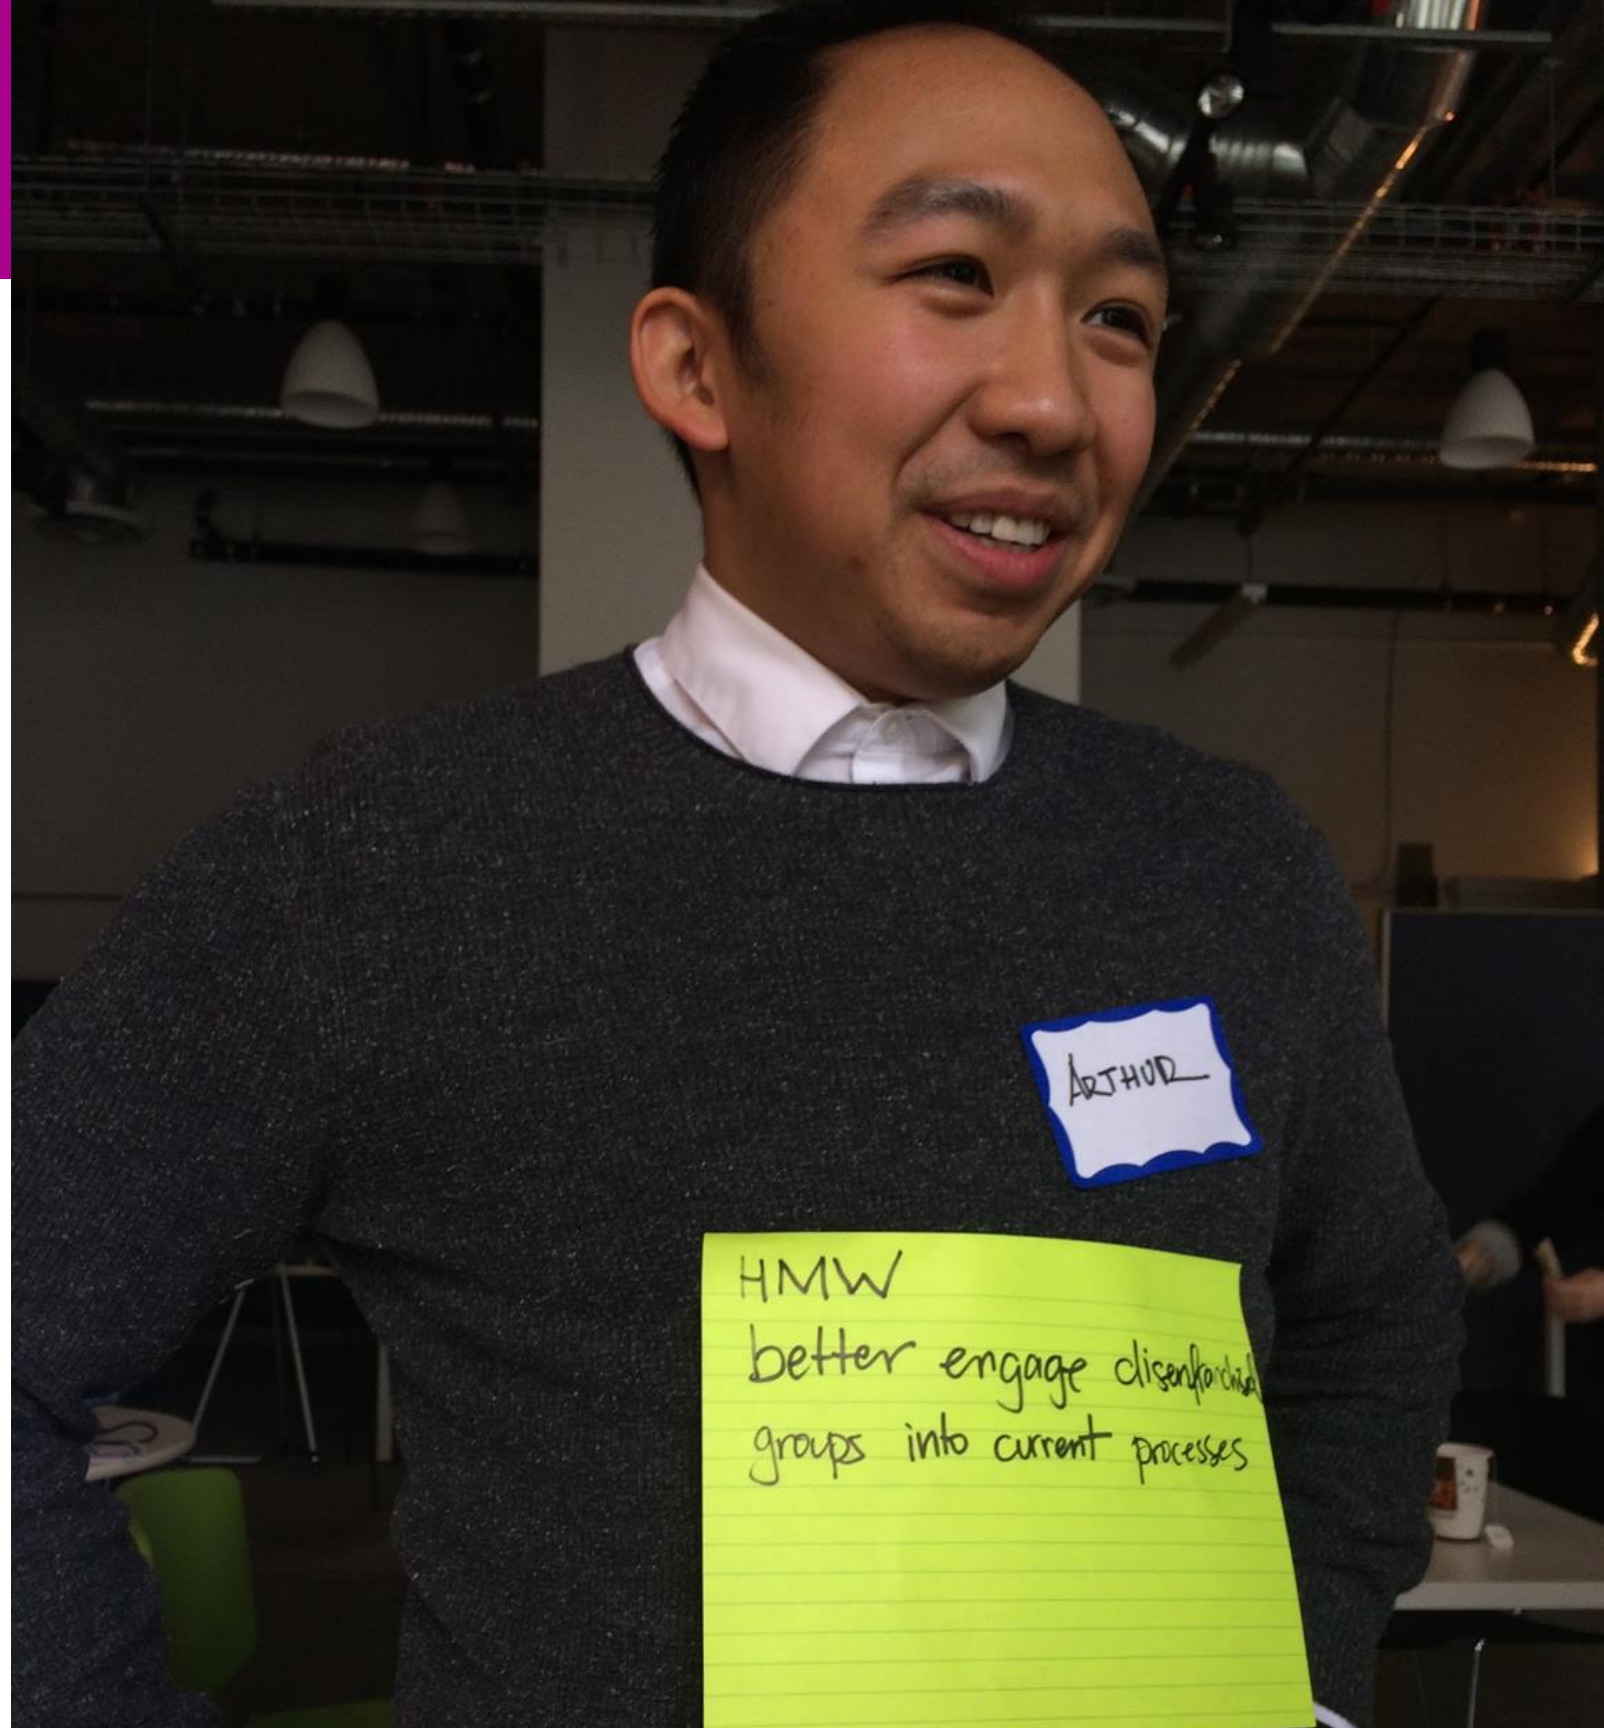

Source: Simon Fraser University

How Change Happens

1. Shifting organizational culture
2. Building innovation infrastructure
3. Unlocking the potential of people
4. Growing authentic partnerships
5. Telling stories of change

Where Change Happens

What does this insight mean for you as an individual?

What does this insight mean for your organisation?

What does this insight mean for the wider system?

Focus Issues + Activities

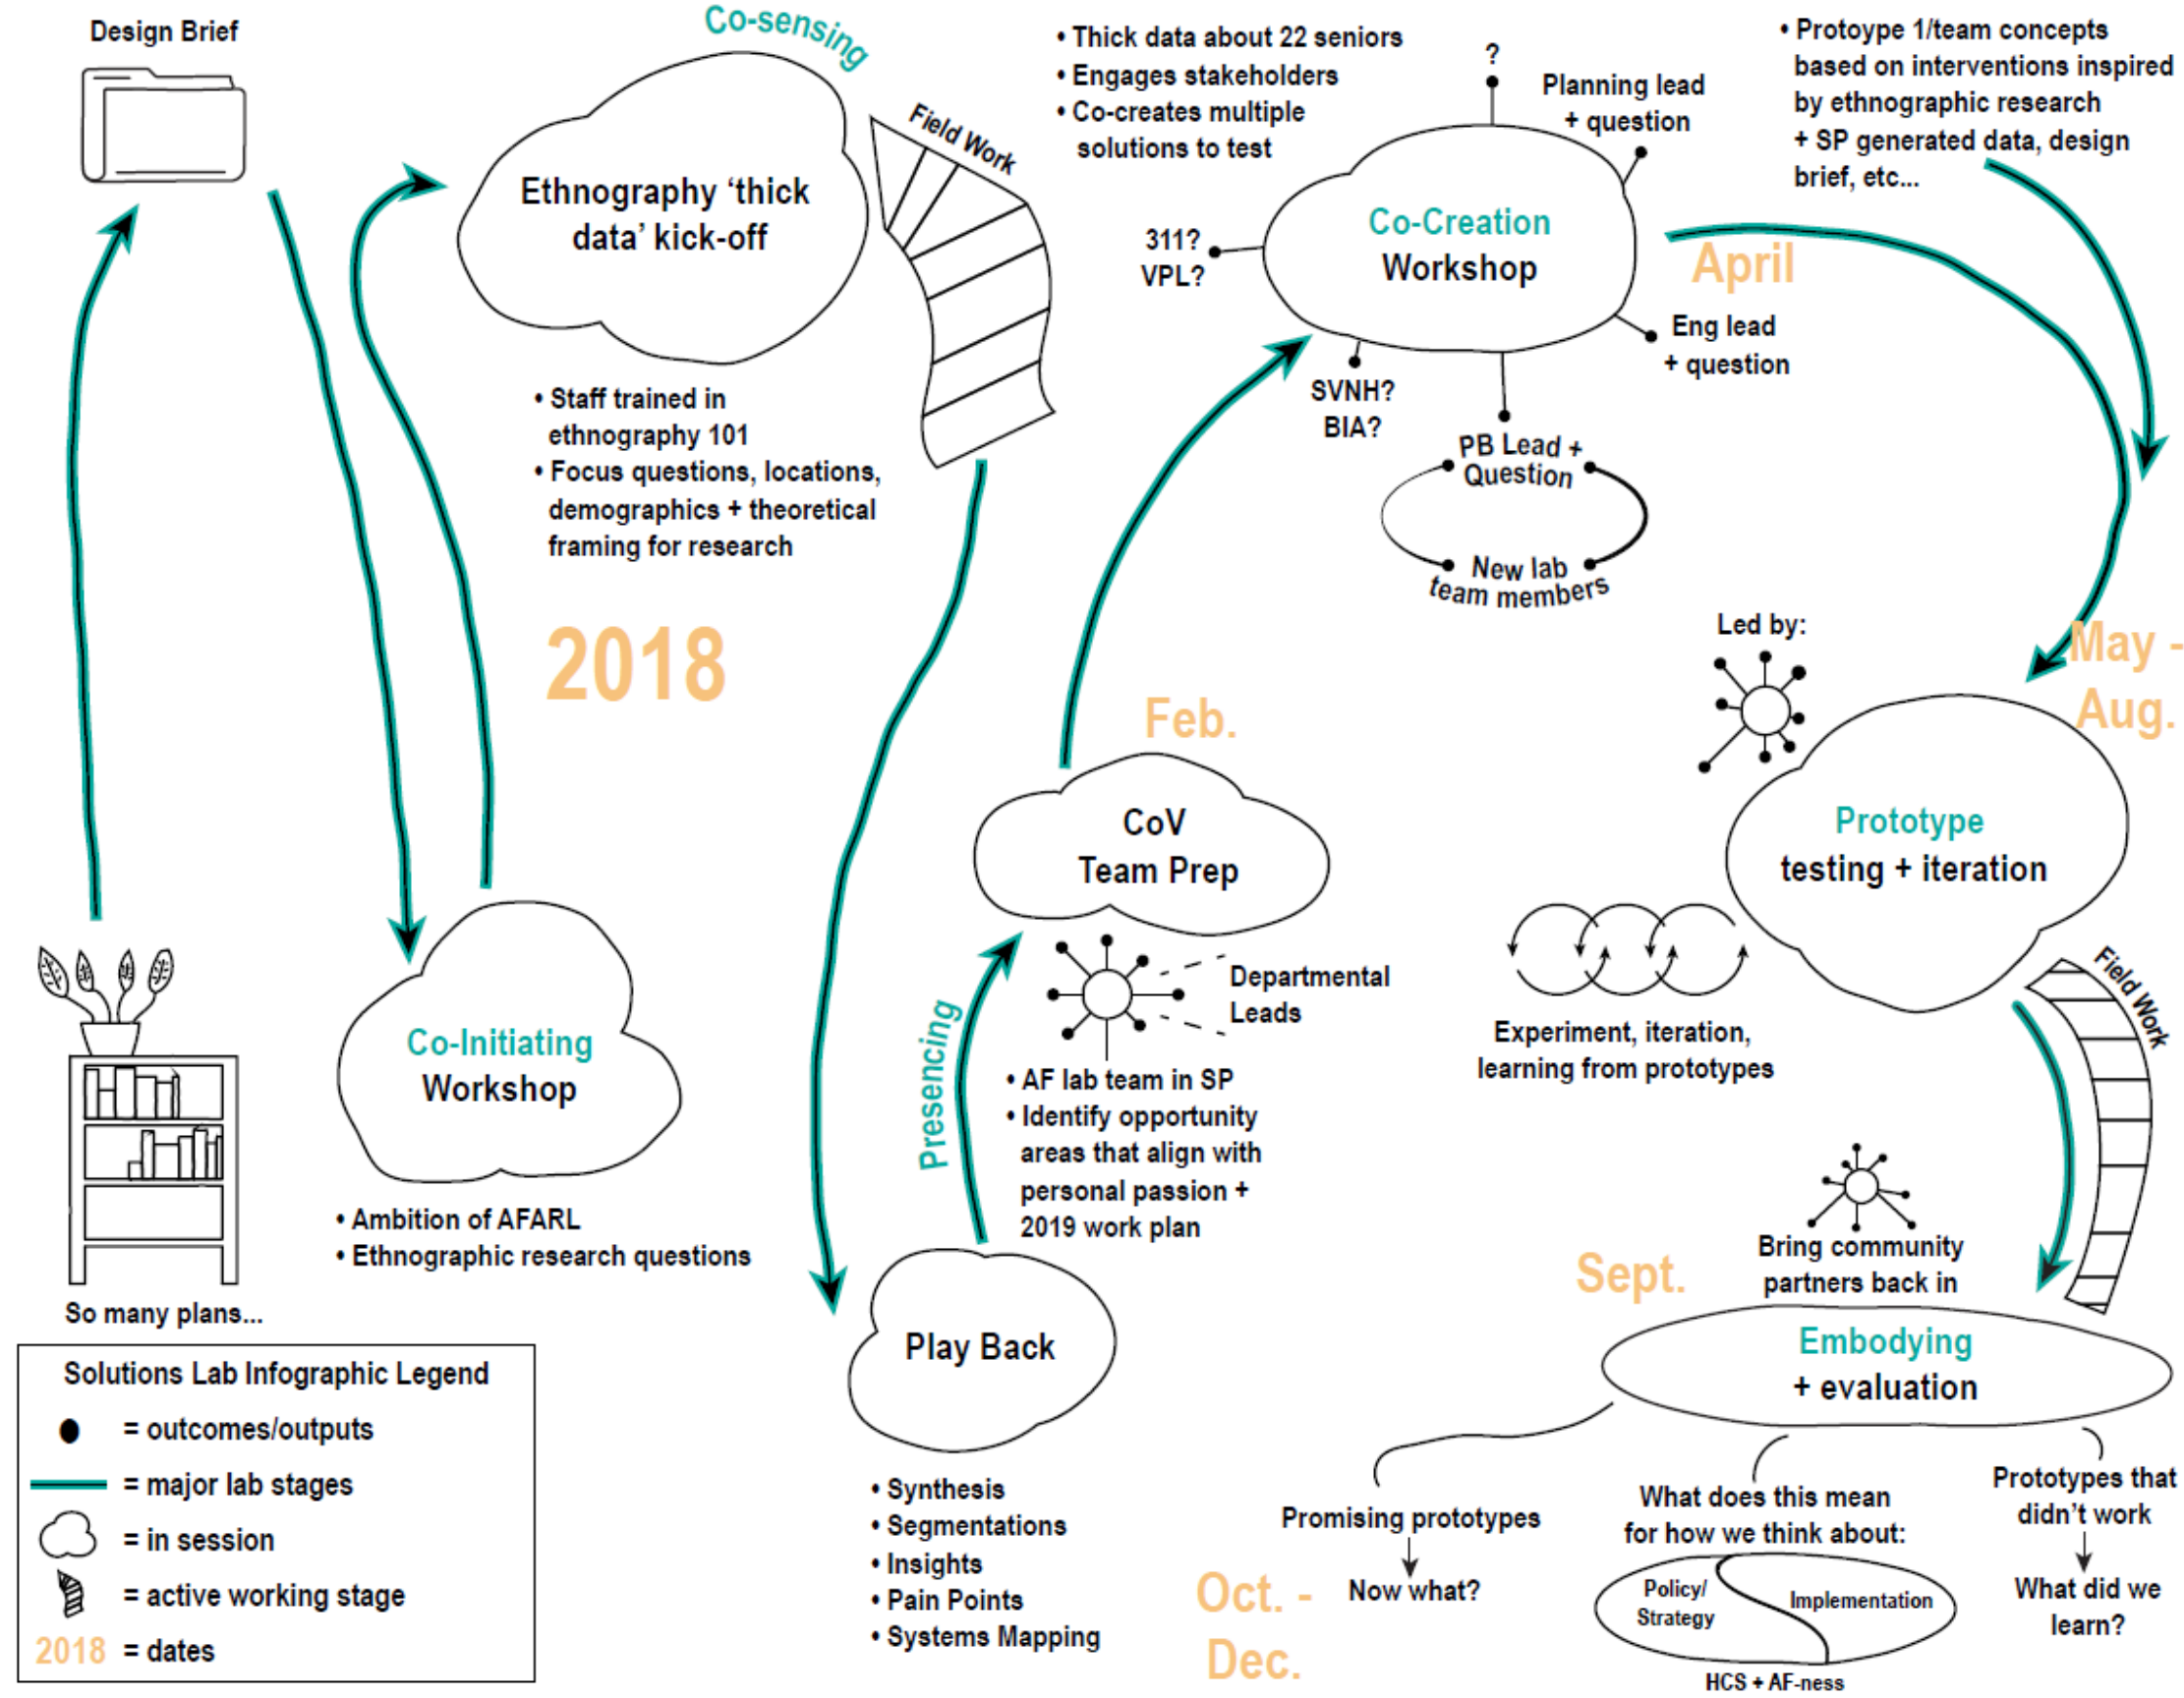

-
- A photograph of three people smiling in front of a wooden wall. On the left is a woman with blonde hair and sunglasses on her head. In the center is a man with a beard and glasses. On the right is a person wearing a colorful cycling helmet and glasses. Behind them is a large, stylized wooden carving of a smiling face with green eyes. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.
1. Inclusive Public Engagement
 2. Public Space + Public Art
 3. Customer Service Improvement in Engineering
 4. Neighbourhood-based Connections
+ Resilience

A photograph showing two women sitting at a wooden table, engaged in a collaborative activity. The woman on the left has short, curly white hair and is wearing an orange shirt. She is looking down at a worksheet. The woman on the right has long dark hair and is wearing a beige sweater. She is also looking at the worksheet. The table is covered with several worksheets, some with diagrams and text. There are also various items on the table, including a blue water bottle, a white cup, a plate of food, and several markers and pens. The background is slightly blurred, showing a wooden floor and some furniture.

5. Collaborative Governance for Healthy City
6. Healthy Diets for People + Planet
7. Food Waste + Loss
8. Age-Friendly Non-Strategy

Age-Friendly

By the Numbers: Labs

- 6 complex lab questions completed + 2 labs underway, with 1 lab scaled
- 200 co-creators:
 - 100 CoV staff, 20 departments
 - 100 community partners, 75 organizations
- 35+ prototype concepts developed and (being) tested

Where We Focus

The background of the slide features a high-angle view from a window, showing the silhouettes of three people looking out at a city skyline and snow-capped mountains under a clear blue sky. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Core Competencies:

- Social Innovation
- Strategic + Systemic Design
- Decolonization, Equity + Inclusion
- Developmental Evaluation

- 55 members, 22 departments
- 10 month experiential learning journey created + delivered
- Partnership with UBC Public Policy School + SSHRC
- Building on-line resource

How might we accelerate equitable access towards diets that are healthy for people + planet?

EVENTS

BEHAVIOURS

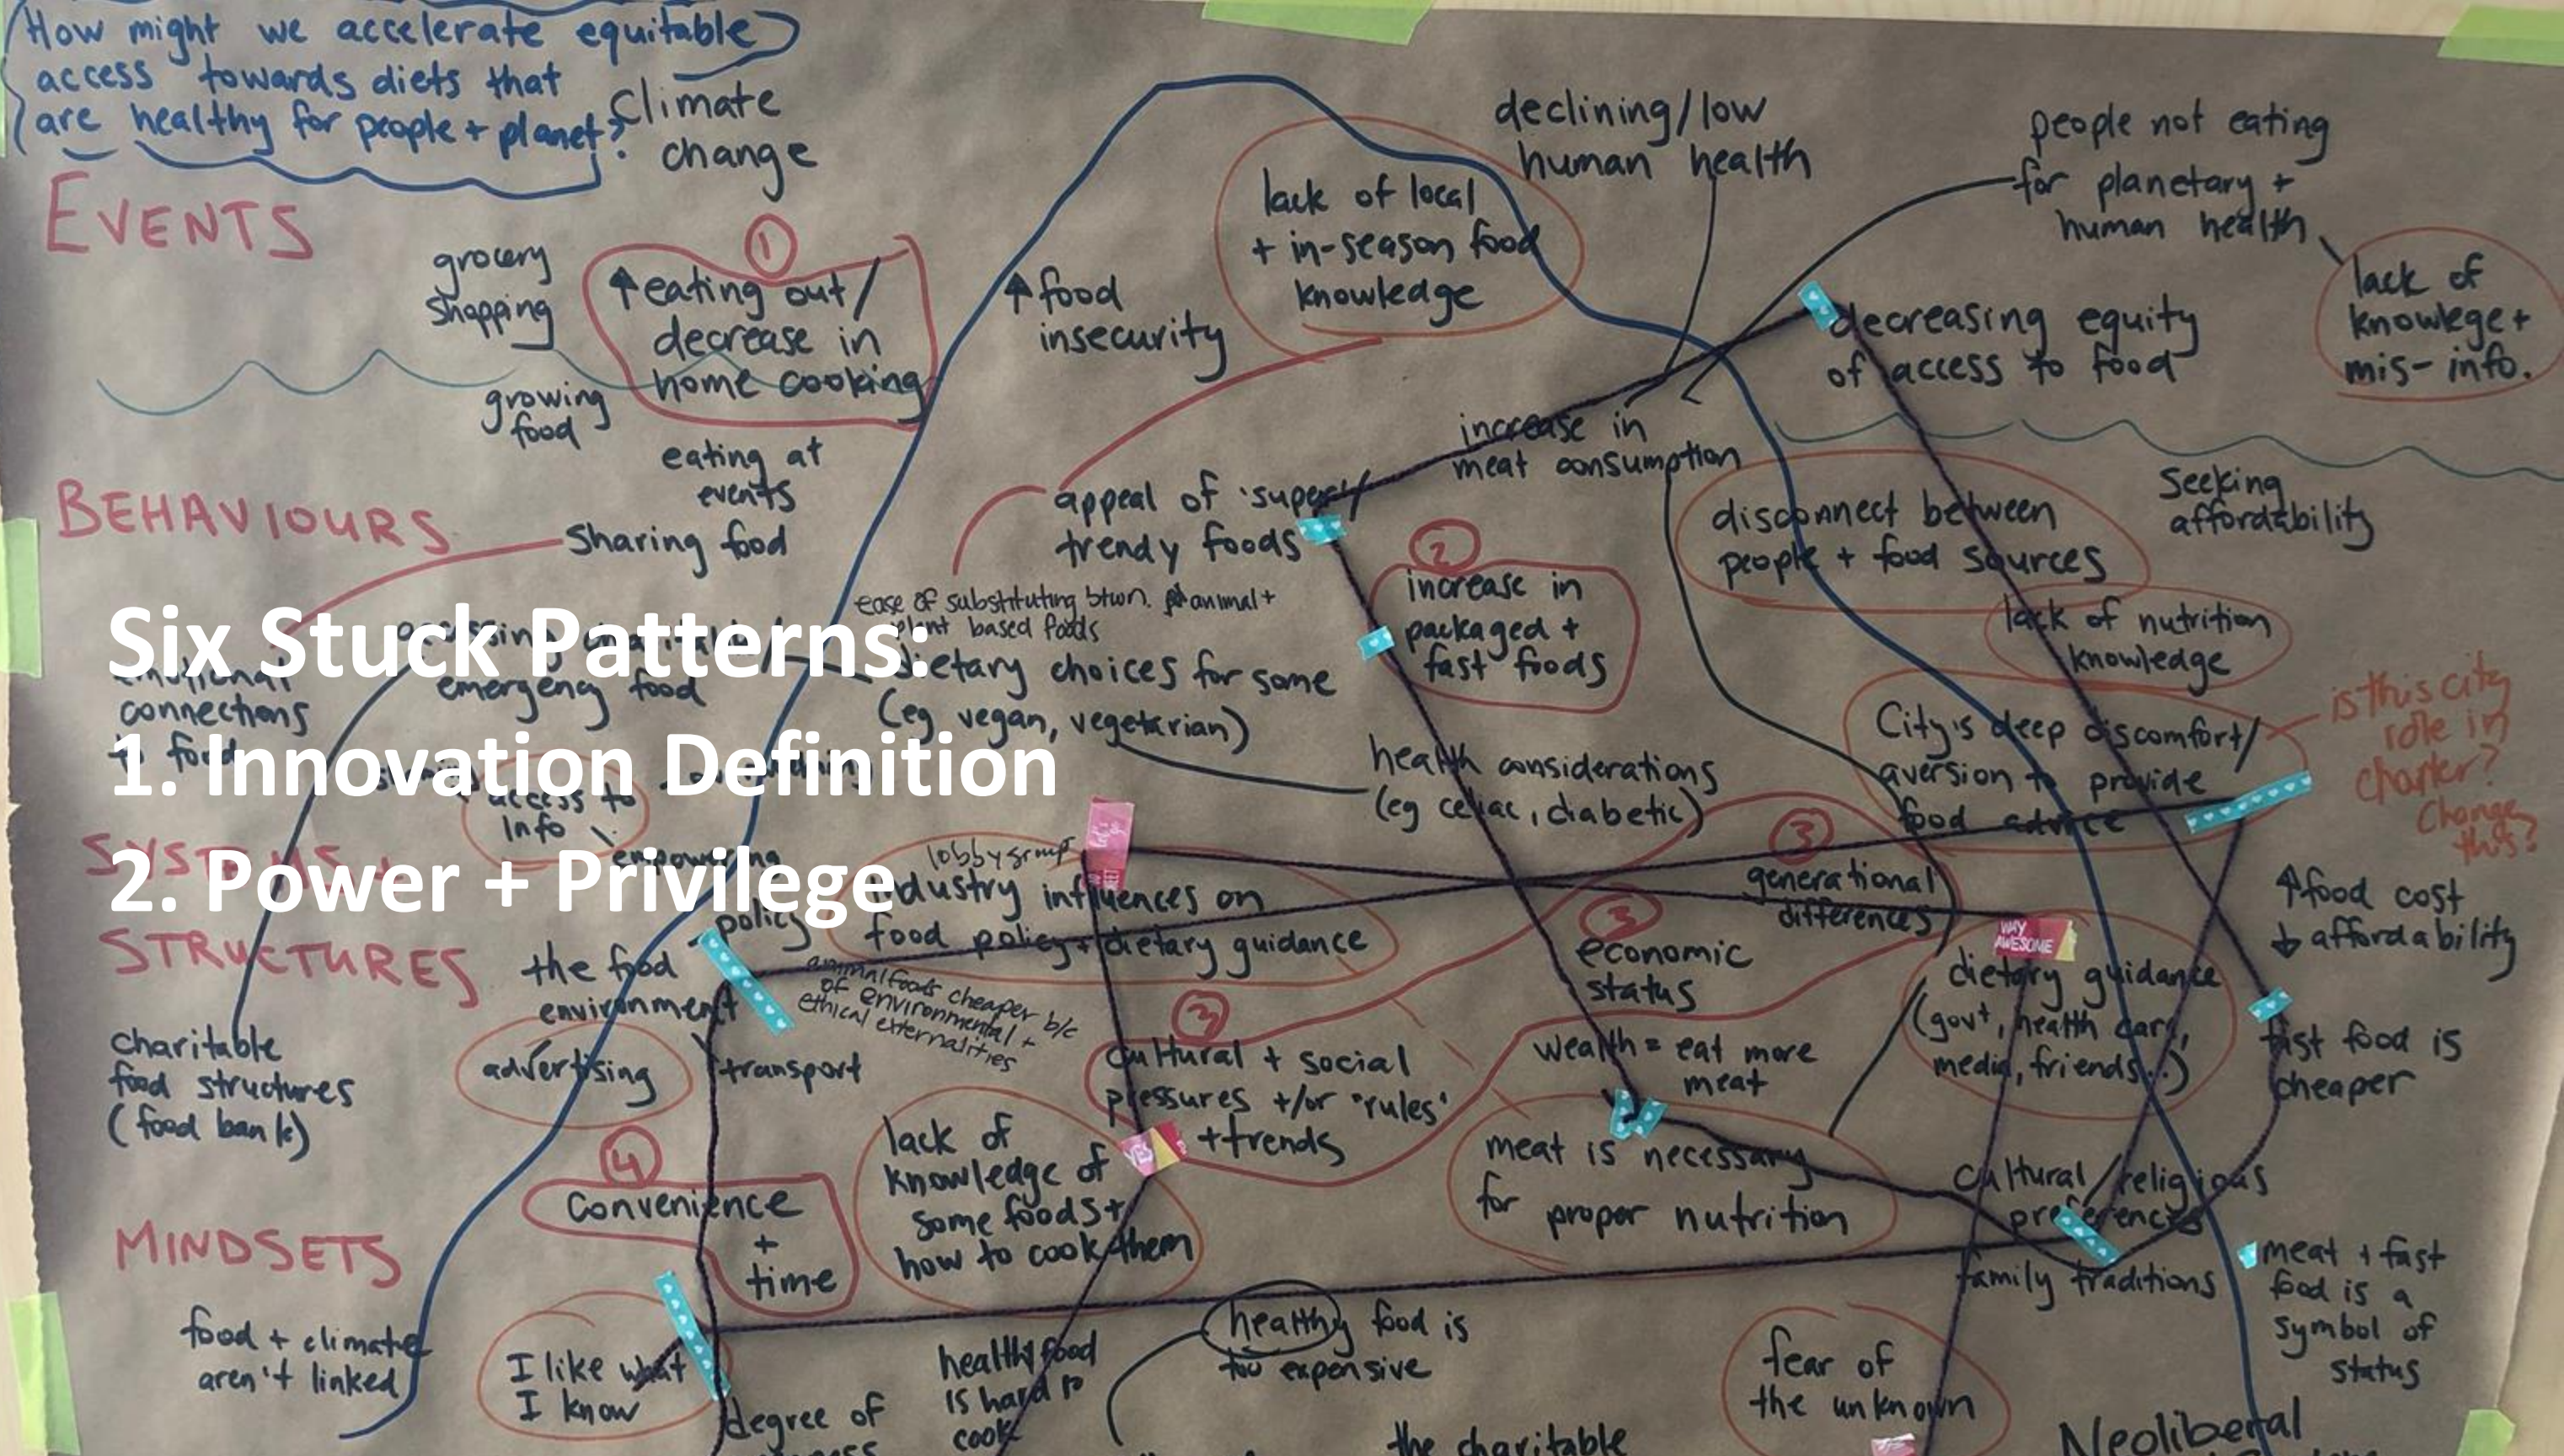

SIX STUCK PATTERNS:

1. Innovation Definition

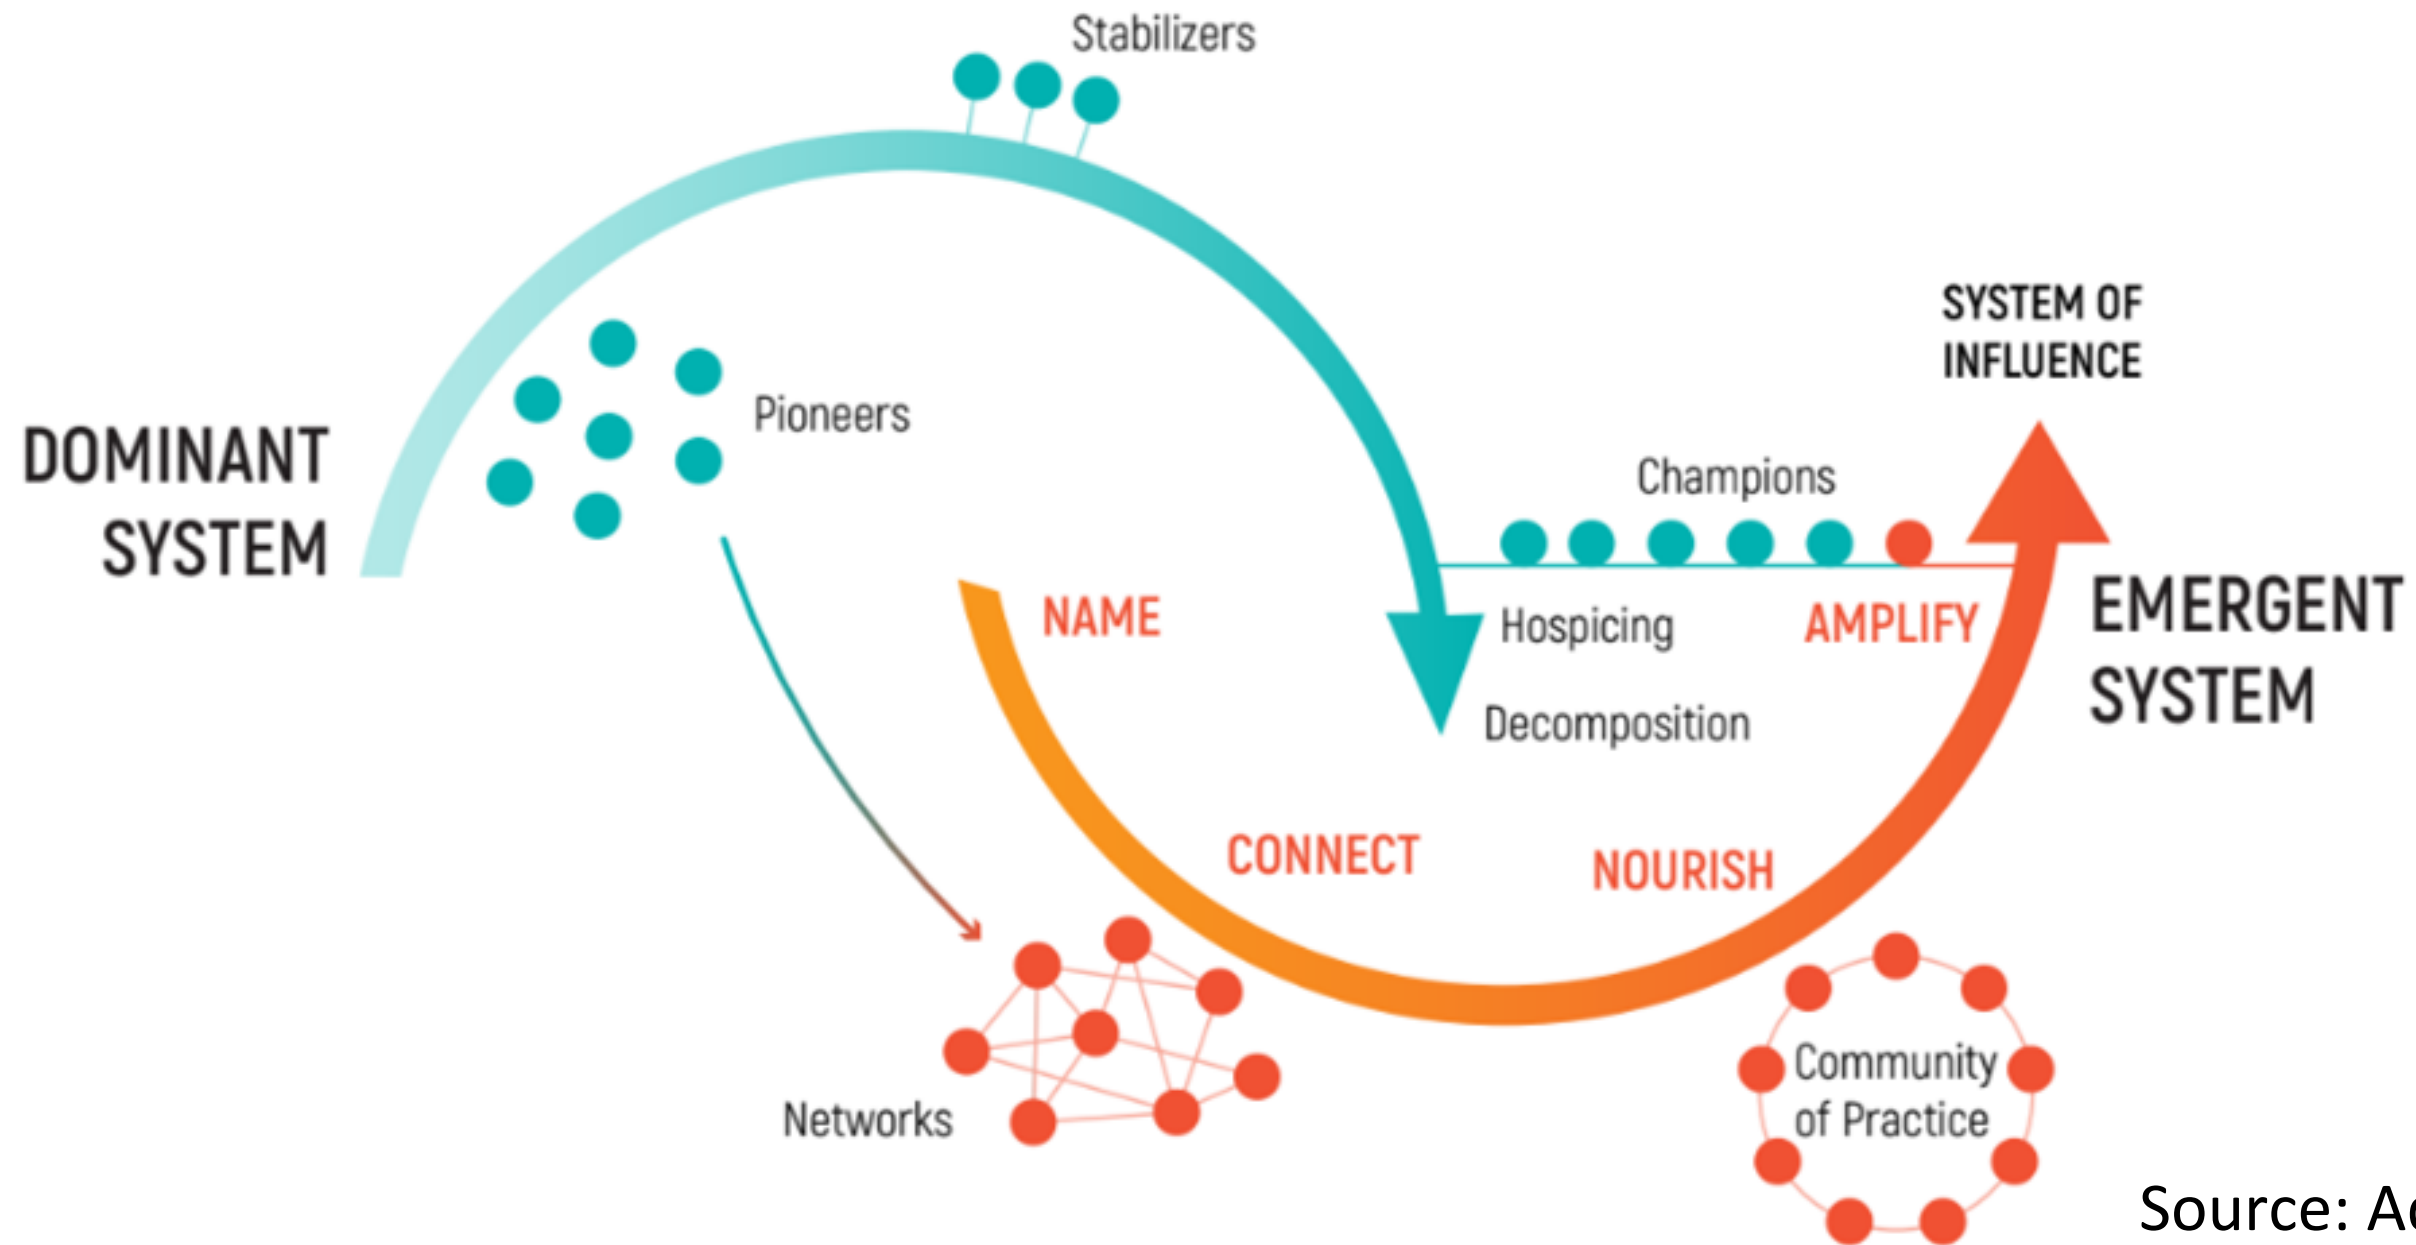

2. Power + Privilege

STRUCTURES

MINDSETS

What does innovation mean in PSILs?

Source: Adapted from
Berkana Institute

EVENTS

BEHAVIOURS

Six Stuck Patterns:

1. Innovation Definition

2. Power + Privilege

3. Strategic Innovation

4. Capacities + Competencies

5. Collaboration

6. Time

A group of people are gathered in a modern, sunlit interior space, likely a gallery or event space. They are silhouetted against large windows that look out onto a street with trees. The people are standing in small groups, some talking, some looking at something in their hands. The floor is polished and reflects the light from the windows. The overall atmosphere is bright and professional.

Thank you

@lindsaycole
lindsay.cole@vancouver.ca